Are you interested in becoming an assistant manager at one of our Christian Endeavour Holiday Centres?

Our background

An exciting opportunity has opened to become an assistant manager at our North Norfolk centre. At The Pleasance we have organised events and programmes throughout the year as well as being a facility for conferences, schools, churches and day groups.

What are we looking for?

By becoming assistant manager you will need to be a team-player, becoming part of a multi-cultural community, involved in managing many aspects of our holiday centre. Whether it be working in the office, spending time with the guests or organising staff, volunteers and holiday programmes- no two days are the same!

We are looking for a committed Christian who is flexible, patient and hard-working. Someone who is ready for a challenge and willing to go the extra mile to encourage a serving attitude from a position of leadership. Previous experience of working in the hospitality sector is desirable as well as being self-motivated, dedicated and enthusiastic about fulfilling the aims and ethos our ministry.

What to do?

If you think you have a servant's heart that would thrive on embracing new challenges and being part of this ministry, then please answer the following questions and send us your expression of interest in this role.

Once this is received then we will contact you with further information and an application pack.
